Shopping

Central Des Flacq

Flacq Market is the largest outdoor market in Mauritius. Located in Central Flacq in the northeast of the island, the market is an authentic slice of Mauritian life. Locals shop for fresh produce with stallholders shouting out their prices and trying to vie for your attention. You can smell freshly-cooked street food and browse stalls offering souvenirs and clothing.

Wednesdays and Sundays are the best days to visit, as all the stalls are open and you can make the most of the street food scene.

How to get there:

The hotel is roughly 4.4 miles (7.07 km) away from the Flacq market, with taxis conveniently available at the hotel.

Super U

In Super U Hypermarket, which is located in Flacq, a self-caterer gets almost everything he can imagine. Baguette, jam, chocolate, mixed pickles, Indian masala — there is nothing you cannot find here. Super U has also a wide choice of Fresh foods like cheese, meat and fish, vegetables and fruits. Not only ingredients of a decent meal can be bought in the big supermarket, but also things like souvenirs, snorkeling equipment, clothes, shoes, books, magazines and newspapers.

Opposite to the checkout counter you can find various recommendable shops: 'Bluesteel', 'Roxy', 'IV Play', 'Red Snapper' are clothing stores for the younger people. 'Une histoire d'amour' provides lovely lingerie. Beach-wear can be found at the same-named shop. Even a pharmacy is to be found.

'Food City' will provide you with a big variety of fast food like 'KFC', 'Pizza Hut', 'local fast food' and 'Debonairs Pizza'. If you are looking for something sweet some cafes and an ice cream parlor are also on spot.

Opening hours of Super U:

Monday to Thursday: 9 a.m. - 8.30 p.m.

Friday and Saturday: 9 a.m. - 9.30 p.m.

Sunday and Public Holidays: 9 a.m. - 1.30 p.m.

How to get there:

The Super You is located within the Flacq market area, approximately 4.4 miles (7.07 km) from the hotel. Taxis are readily available at the Crystals Beach Resort Belle Mare and can take you directly to the Super U in Flacq.

Shopping

Belle Mare: The Jewel of Mauritius

Shopping

Quatre Bornes

Located beside the harbour, Le Caudan Waterfront is a shopping, dining and culture destination in Port Louis. Its shop-lined walkway is topped with colourful umbrellas, leading you to local boutiques selling everything from stationary to clothing. When you've worked up an appetite, you'll find plenty of delicious bites at the food court, refreshments at the laid-back cafés and international cuisine in the restaurants.

Le Caudan Waterfront

Le Caudan Waterfront is recognised as a cultural destination in Port Louis. The Caudan Arts Centre regularly hosts Mauritian artists and international theatre productions. Another must-visit is L'Allée des Artistes (The Artists Corner), where artists showcase their talent alongside performers and musicians. Moviegoers can catch the latest screenings at the cinema complex, while the Blue Penny Museum is a great place to learn about the history of Mauritius and its rare blue penny stamps.

Opening hours of Caudan Mall:

Monday to Saturday: 9:30 a.m. – 05:30 p.m.

Sunday and Public Holidays: 9:30 a.m. – 02:00 p.m.

How to get there:

The distance between Crystal Beach Resort Belle Mare to Port Louis is approximately 50 kilometers and the drive takes about 45 minutes. Taxis are easily accessible at the Crystals Beach Hotel and can transport you directly.

Recreation & Excursions

The resort offers a wide variety of water sports activities as mentioned below: No bookings needed, first come first serve.

- Glass Bottom
- Kayak
- standing paddle board

All above activities are free except for scuba diving which requires a supplement. Kindly contact the boat house kiosk, or the Guest Relations counter for bookings.

Moreover, the hotel offers a selection of highly popular half and full-day excursions, such as the local island discovery tour. All excursions are subject to weather conditions and must be reserved in advance via Guest Relation.

Snorkeling

Experience the breathtaking underwater scenery that Mauritius is known for. Take the plunge and discover the plentiful marine species and striking coral reefs. Prior scuba diving experience is not required to enjoy the wonders beneath the surface, with an extra cost of MUR 750 per person.

Flacq Market

Flacq is one of the most important villages in Mauritius.

This meeting point for inhabitants of the East boasts the country's largest open-air market.

The extremely colorful market attracts a large number of people.

Ile aux Cerfs

Ile aux Cerfs is a paradise for water sports and has the most beautiful beach in Mauritius. You cannot afford to miss this tiny island, delicately poised on the ocean, a real pearl in the Mauritian landscape.

Ile aux Aigrettes

Owing to the remarkable work accomplished by the Mauritius Wildlife Fund, the island has become an international standard for the protection of natural resources and endangered species. A few of the world's rarest birds, including the kestrel, can be seen there. You can also discover the extremely rare Pink Pigeon, the Green Gecko Phelsuma and the Aldabra giant tortoise.

Dutch Ruins

At Vieux Grand Port, the oldest settlements in Mauritius, you can see the ruins of the first Dutch fortifications. Excavation work is underway in a bid to uncover an important part of Mauritian history.

Grand Bay

Grand Bay was the first area of the island to fully experience the tourist boom. A shopping and leisure paradise, Grand Bay also happens to be the area where Mauritians head for when they want a fun-filled night out (restaurants, bars and discos).

Sagar Shiv temple at Poste de Flacq

Sagar Shiv Mandir is a Hindu temple sitting on the island of Goyave de Chine, Poste de Flacq, Mauritius. Sagar Shiv Mandir is on the eastern part of Mauritius. It is a place of worship for Hindus settled in Mauritius and it is also visited by tourists. It is one of the Top 3 Hindu temples to see on the island. It is surrounded by the lagoon and the mangroves that give to the place a mystical aspect. It hosts a 108 feet height bronze colored statue of Shiva.

L'Aventure du Sucre

Visit an interactive and ultra-modern exhibition situated at the heart of an ancient sugar mill and discover the fascinating history of Mauritius and its sugarcane adventure exposed over 5000 sq. meters! Then, let yourself be tempted by our tropical boutique with its unique gifts, souvenirs and tasting of special unrefined sugars as well as local rum. Do not miss the opportunity to relish authentic Mauritian cuisine with refined flavors at our restaurant "Le Fangourin".

Port Louis

Central Market

The picturesque Port-Louis central market continues to be a meeting point for Mauritians looking for a «cari» (curry) or «dithé» (tea). Here you will find all the ingredients that help to create the charm of Mauritius: local crafts, vegetables, famous «dholl pourris» as well as herbal tea sellers; built in 1844.

China Town

Enjoy a picturesque and affordable visit to Port-Louis' Chinatown. The sellers of boiled «chow mein» and fish balls form part of the picturesque scene in an area where you can find almost anything at an affordable price.

Security & Safety

At Crystals Beach Hotel, a member of Radisson Individuals, safety always comes first. Since this is our top priority, we thank you in advance for taking a moment to read these guidelines and take necessary precautions in case of an emergency.

Smoke detectors are positioned in your room, please familiarize yourself with their location. An evacuation floor plan is situated at the back of your door.

If you discover a Fire

If you discover a fire try not to panic and do not attempt to extinguish the fire unless you are comfortable doing so. Regardless of the fire size, raise the alarm by calling the Emergency button on your telephone and give accurate details of the fire location to the operator.

In case of Fire Evacuation

If you hear the fire alarm please vacate your room in a calm and orderly manner (do not stop to bring your belongings) and proceed to the fire evacuation assembly point immediately. This is indicated on the Emergency Evacuation Map on the back of your room door.

If you are in close proximity to the fire, move away from the fire and smoke. Close the doors and windows if time permits as you leave your room. On your way out warn others nearby and go to the designated assembly point. Do not enter the room until you have been instructed to by the Management Team.

In case of Tsunami Warning

Each team member will have an assignment.

In the event of a Tsunami warning evacuation; upon hearing the alarm, all guests should proceed to their accommodation room, collect warm clothing and any medication they are prescribed.

Guests should then calmly make their way to the assembly point and wait for further instructions from staff. Staff will be available at points around the resort to assist and give direction.

Staff will be available to make you feel comfortable and are fully trained in the emergency evacuation procedures.

In any case of a real emergency situation, the most important thing to remember is to stay calm, we are here to help and assist you in the unlikely event of an emergency.
